Child support costs

If you pay child support and the monthly amount you have to pay is a 'formula assessment' set by Inland Revenue, the child support can be included when we work out your Temporary Additional Support. You don't have to provide this information but, if you don't, you may not receive the full amount of Temporary Additional Support you're eligible for. We can't include other types of child support.

3

Please tick which applies:

- My child support costs have stopped or are ending soon.
- My child support costs are changing.
- I want to include my child support costs in the Temporary Additional Support I get.

Please tell us how you'd like to provide proof of the child support you have to pay.

We'll need proof of how much you have to pay. There are two ways to do this:

- Inland Revenue can share the information with us.
If you agree, Inland Revenue can tell us about your monthly child support costs. They'll share your name, date of birth, IRD number as well as your current and expected child support costs. We'll use this information to process the application for Temporary Additional Support. You will still need to let us know if your child support costs change while you're getting Temporary Additional Support. We'll work with you to make sure you're getting paid the right amount and resolve any under or over payments. They'll also tell us if they're managing other types of child support for you, even if it can't be included in your application. We'll only use this information to help answer questions you might have. We'll ask for your consent each time you re-apply for Temporary Additional Support.
- You can provide your 'child support to pay' letter from Inland Revenue.
You will still need to let us know if the amount of child support you have to pay changes while you're getting Temporary Additional Support.

I agree that Inland Revenue can share my child support costs if requested by the Ministry of Social Development.

I do not agree to my information being shared, and will provide the 'child support to pay' letter from Inland Revenue.

Let us know when things change

You need to let us know about changes that might affect the amount you're paid, like:

- starting, stopping or changing jobs
- starting or finishing part-time or full-time study
- changes to your pay or other income, including getting an overseas pension
- starting to run a business (for yourself or someone else).

Changes to information about you or your family, like:

- name, address, contact details or bank account number
- starting or ending a relationship, marriage, or civil union
- a partner passes away
- the number of children in your care.

Change to where you live or how much it costs, like a rise or drop in your rent, board, mortgage or rates.

We also need to know if you:

- are travelling overseas
- go into or come out of hospital
- are being held in custody or on remand.

Your rights

If you don't think we have things right or there's something you don't understand:

- call us – we can usually fix it over the phone
- you have the right to ask us to review the decision. Find out how at msd.govt.nz/reviews

Privacy

Our online Privacy Notice tells you how we collect, use, share and keep your personal information safe. It also has information about how you can access your personal information that we hold, and your right to ask for it to be corrected if you think it is incorrect.
