

Extra Help application

MINISTRY OF SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT
TE MANATŪ WHAKAHIATO ORA

If you're finding it tough to meet everyday expenses and you don't already get payments from us, you may be able to get extra help. This form contains applications for three types of assistance. Your income and/or assets need to be under certain limits for each type of help you can get and there are some other conditions.

Types of Extra Help

Accommodation Supplement

This can help with rent, board or the cost of owning a home.

If you and/or your partner are tenants living in a public housing property, you won't be able to get it. Public housing properties are provided by Kāinga Ora and approved community housing providers.

Health and Disability Costs

If you or a family member have a health condition or disability likely to continue for at least six months, you may be able to get extra help for your costs. We call this a Disability Allowance.

We may be able to help with costs such as visits to the doctor, medicines, household costs, some travel costs and many other things.

Your doctor or specialist will need to complete the Disability Certificate in the form.

Temporary Additional Support

This helps when you have essential living costs you have no other way to pay for. You also need to be doing what you can to reduce your costs or increase your income.

What you need to do next

You and your partner (if you have one) will need to:

1. Complete this application form.
2. If you're applying for help with health and disability costs, a health practitioner needs to fill out the Disability Allowance medical certificate in the application.
3. Collect the documents you need to show us. There's a checklist over the page to help you.
4. Bring this application form and the documents when you meet with us. If you don't already have a meeting arranged, contact us on 0800 559 009 so we can set one up for you.

You must give us all the information we need.

If you don't have all the information we need, talk with us and we may be able to help.

If we find out later that any information you give us is not true, or that you knew information you should have told us and did not tell us, we may stop paying your benefit. You might need to pay money back. In some cases you could even be prosecuted.

Definition of a relationship for benefit purposes

Whether people are single or a couple affects eligibility for certain income assistance and the rate at which we can pay that assistance.

When we work out your entitlement to income assistance, we'll consider you to be in a relationship if you're married, in a civil union, or in a de facto relationship, and have a degree of companionship.

By degree of companionship, we mean two people:

- are committed to each other emotionally for the foreseeable future, and
- are financially interdependent.

To give you a better idea of what we mean by this, think about whether your relationship includes some of the things below:

- you live together at the same address most of the time
- you share responsibilities, for example bringing up children (if any)
- you socialise and holiday together
- you share money, bank accounts or credit cards
- you share household bills
- you have a sexual relationship
- people think of you as a couple
- you give each other emotional support and companionship.

HOW TO ANSWER Q23:

Tick this statement to confirm you understand the definition of a relationship for benefit purposes.

If you don't understand what we mean by a relationship please leave this blank until you talk with us. In the meantime, go to question 28.

Please tell us how you'd like to provide proof of the child support you have to pay.

We'll need proof of how much you have to pay. There are two ways to do this:

- Inland Revenue can share the information with us.

If you agree, Inland Revenue can tell us about your monthly child support costs. They'll share your name, date of birth, IRD number as well as your current and expected child support costs. We'll use this information to process the application for Temporary Additional Support.

You will still need to let us know if your child support costs change while you're getting Temporary Additional Support. We'll work with you to make sure you're getting paid the right amount and resolve any under or over payments.

They'll also tell us if they're managing other types of child support for you, even if it can't be included in your application. We'll only use this information to help answer questions you might have.

We'll ask for your consent each time you re-apply for Temporary Additional Support.

- You can provide your 'child support to pay' letter from Inland Revenue.

You will still need to let us know if the amount of child support you have to pay changes while you're getting Temporary Additional Support.

I agree that Inland Revenue can share my child support costs if requested by the Ministry of Social Development.

My partner agrees that Inland Revenue can share their child support costs if requested by the Ministry of Social Development.

I do not agree to my information being shared, and will provide the 'Child Support to Pay' letter from Inland Revenue.
