Including a partner form

If you get a benefit from Work and Income and now have a partner, your partner will need to be included in your benefit and may get payments as well.

If you and your partner are both under 20 years old and you have dependent children, you may qualify for Young Parent Payment. Please talk to us about this.

	Before your partner can be included in your benefit:
What you	 you need to answer some questions (pages 3 to 5)
need to do	• your partner will need to answer questions in the Partner form (pages 7 to 14)
	 you'll both need to read and complete the obligations and privacy section (pages 15 to 19)
	• you'll both need to sign the form (pages 21 and 23).
	You'll need to bring proof of who you are.
	Please bring some identification that you've given us before, such as a driver licence or passport, or your Community Services Card.
What your	Proof of who you are:
partner needs to bring	If you were born in New Zealand, bring one type of official identification that has your full legal name and your date of birth (for example, your birth certificate, passport, driver licence, firearms licence, deed poll).
	If you were born overseas, bring proof that you have a right to live in New Zealand (for example, a citizenship certificate, a New Zealand passport, a passport from another country with residence class visa or proof of permanent residence).
	If your name has changed , bring your marriage certificate, deed poll, or other proof of the name change.
	All people applying need to bring two more documents that help to prove who you are (for example, a marriage certificate, bank statement, phone or power account, driver licence).
	Proof of your bank account details, such as a bank statement or deposit slip
	If you're using identification that has expired, it must not be more than two years past the expiry date.

	Proof of payments, if you receive a benefit, allowance or pension from overseas.
	Full birth certificates for each dependent child in your care.
	Your marriage or civil union certificate, for your relationship.
	Your business accounts, if you have your own business.
	Proof of any before-tax income for the 52 weeks, before the application (for example, wages, holiday pay and any other income).
	Trust documents, if you are involved in a trust (for example, trust deed, deed of debt, gift statements, accounts).

You must give us all the information we need.

If you do not have all the information we need, talk with us and we may be able to help.

If we find out later that any information you give us is not true, or that you knew information you should have told us and did not tell us, we may stop paying your benefit. You might need to pay money back, we may impose a penalty, and you could be prosecuted.

Including a partner obligations

Both the applicant and partner need to read this section.

This part of the form:

- · lists the change of circumstances obligations for the client
- · lists the full obligations for the partner
- explains what will happen if obligations are not met
- explains how we protect the information given to us, and what we can do with it.

Clients including their partners will be aware of their full obligations, which have not changed.

Obligations

These are what you have to do to receive payments from Work and Income. If you are a partner you have fulltime work obligations if you are:

- 18 or over and have no dependent children, or
- 20 or over and have no dependent children under 14 years old (including any child you get Orphan's Benefit or Unsupported Child's Benefit for).

People in other situations may have part-time work obligations, work preparation obligations, or youth activity obligations, depending on their circumstances. These obligations are explained in the following sections. Please read all the obligations in each section because they could apply to you if your circumstances change.

1. Change of circumstances

I must tell Work and Income or my Contracted Service Provider (where I have one assigned to me) immediately if either my partner or I:

- · have a change in work situation (such as starting part-time, casual or full-time work, whether paid or unpaid)
- · become self-employed/start to run a business
- · have changes to my/our income or financial circumstances
- · intend to travel overseas
- · start/finish part-time or full-time study
- have changes to personal details (such as name, address, contact details or bank account number)
- have changes to my/our living situation (such as marriage or separation, starting or ending a civil union, starting or ending a de facto relationship with someone, change in the number of children supported, change in accommodation costs)
- · are imprisoned/held in custody on remand
- · are admitted to or discharged from hospital
- · have been granted an overseas pension
- · have any other change that may affect my/our benefit entitlement or rate.

2. Full-time work obligations

I understand that while I'm getting this benefit, I have the following full-time work obligations:

- be available for and take reasonable steps to get a suitable job
- take any offer of suitable full-time, part-time or temporary work, or work that is seasonal or subsidised
- · attend and take part in any suitable job interviews Work and Income ask me to
- take and pass any drug test potential employers or training providers require
- attend and take part in interviews with Work and Income as required
- · work with Work and Income to plan how I'll find a suitable job
- take part in any other activities that Work and Income refer me to, such as attend any job training courses, seminars, work experience or work assessments (including rehabilitation, but not medical treatment) that will improve my work readiness or help me get work
- let Work and Income know how I'm meeting my work obligations as often as Work and Income reasonably requires.

Applies to:

Partner

Full-time means you'll generally be expected to look for work of at least 30 hours a week.

Obligations

3. Part-time work obligations

I understand that if I am 20 years or older and my youngest child (including any child I get Orphan's or Unsupported Child's Benefit for) is aged between three and 13 years, I'll have the following part-time work obligations:

- be available for and take reasonable steps to get a suitable part-time job
- take any offer of suitable part-time or temporary work, or work that is seasonal or subsidised
- attend and take part in any suitable job interviews Work and Income ask me to
- · take and pass any drug test potential employers or training providers require
- attend and take part in interviews with Work and Income as required
- work with Work and Income to plan how I'll find a suitable job
- take part in any other activities that Work and Income refer me to, such as attend any job training courses, seminars, work experience or work assessments (including rehabilitation, but not medical treatment) that will improve my work readiness or help me get work
- let Work and Income know how I'm meeting my work obligations as often as Work and Income reasonably requires.

4. Work preparation obligations

I understand that if I am 20 years or older and my youngest child (including any child I get Orphan's or Unsupported Child's Benefit for) is under three years of age, I'll have the following work preparation obligations:

- take reasonable steps to prepare and plan for work
- attend and take part in work preparation interviews, where Work and Income ask me to
- attend and take part in work related activities or programmes such as a work assessment, a programme or seminar to increase particular skills or enhance motivation where Work and Income ask me to
- attend and take part in any other activity that Work and Income require me to (including rehabilitation but not medical treatment, voluntary work or activity in the community).

5. Work ability assessment

Where I've been asked to I'll have an obligation to attend and participate in a work ability assessment.

6. Working with a Contracted Service Provider

Where I've been asked to work with a Contracted Service Provider I'll have an obligation to co-operate with them and to:

- · attend and participate in any interview with them
- · report to them on how I'm meeting my obligations
- complete assessments with them.

7. Obligations for parents and caregivers with dependent children

I understand that while I'm getting this benefit I'll be expected to take reasonable steps to meet social obligations as a parent or a caregiver. These are to ensure my dependent children (including any child I get Orphan's or Unsupported Child's Benefit for) are:

- enrolled with a general practitioner (GP) or a medical practice that is part of a Primary Health Organisation (PHO)
- enrolled in and attending one of the following from the age of three until they start school:
 - an approved early childhood education programme or
 - Te Aho o Te Kura Pounamu The Correspondence School or
 - another approved parenting and early childhood home education programme
- up to date with core Well Child/Tamariki Ora checks if aged under five
- enrolled in and attending school from the age of five or six (depending on when they start school).

I understand that I may be required to meet with Work and Income to discuss how I'm meeting my obligations as a parent or a caregiver.

Applies to:

Partner Part-time means you'll generally be expected to look for work of at least 20 hours a week. Partner Partner Partner Partner

Obligations

8. Youth activity obligations

I understand that if I am aged 16-17 years without children and I am a partner of a main beneficiary I will have the following activity obligations:

- be enrolled in and attending, or be available for a full-time course of secondary school or tertiary education or approved training or work-based learning leading to:
 - NCEA Level 2 or
 - an equivalent qualification or
 - a higher qualification
- when asked, participate in and complete an approved budgeting programme
- when asked, report to Work and Income or my Youth Service Provider (where I have one assigned to me) on how I am meeting my activity obligations
- when asked, attend and participate in regular budgeting discussions with Work and Income or my Youth Service Provider (where I have one assigned to me)
- when asked, attend and participate in any interview with Work and Income or my Youth Service Provider (where I have one assigned to me)
- when asked, provide within 20 working days, Work and Income or my Youth Service provider (where I have one assigned to me) with details of my accommodation costs and service costs such as electricity and telephone, lawful debts and liabilities
- co-operate with Work and Income or my Youth Service provider to manage the spending of my benefit, and:
 - attend and be involved in regular budgeting discussions with Work and Income or my Youth Service provider
 - at these discussions or when asked, provide details on:
 - > accommodation costs and service costs such as electricity and telephone
 - > lawful debts and liabilities
 - > how I spend any in-hand allowance and money credited to my payment card or any other device.

I also understand when I turn 18 the above obligations may continue to apply depending on my circumstances.

I understand that if I am aged 16-19 years, I am a partner of a main beneficiary and have one or more dependent children, I will have the following activity obligations:

- when asked, participate in and complete an approved budgeting programme
- when asked, participate in an approved parenting education programme
- enrol my children:
 - with a Primary Health Organisation, where local provider capacity allows
 - under the age of five years, with a WellChild/Tamariki Ora provider and keep up to date with their visits
- ensure my children are attending an Early Childhood Education Programme or other suitable childcare, while I am participating in education, training, work-based learning or part-time work
- when asked and in the manner reasonably required, report to Work and Income or my Youth Service Provider (where I have one assigned to me) on how I am meeting my obligations
- when asked, attend and participate in regular budgeting discussions with Work and Income or my Youth Service Provider (where I have one assigned to me)
- when asked, attend and participate in any interview with Work and Income or my Youth Service Provider (where I have one assigned to me).

I understand that when my youngest dependent child is 12 months of age or over (or is over six months of age and a suitable place becomes available in a Teen Parent Unit) and there are no special circumstances, or I am not the primary caregiver, I will also have the following activity obligations:

- be enrolled in and satisfactorily undertaking, or be available for a full-time course of secondary school or tertiary education or approved training or work-based learning leading to:
 - NCEA Level 2 or
 - an equivalent qualification or
 - a higher qualification.
- when asked, provide within 20 working days, Work and Income or my Youth Service provider (where I have one assigned to me) with details of my accommodation costs and service costs such as electricity and telephone, lawful debts and liabilities
- co-operate with Work and Income or my Youth Service provider to manage the spending of my benefit, and:
 - attend and be involved in regular budgeting discussions with Work and Income or my Youth Service provider
 - at these discussions or when asked, provide details on:
 - > accommodation costs and service costs such as electricity and telephone
 - > lawful debts and liabilities
 - > how I spend any in-hand allowance and money credited to my payment card or any other device

I also understand when I turn 20 the above obligations may continue to apply depending on my circumstances.

9. Temporary Additional Support

I understand that if I receive Temporary Additional Support, my partner and I must take all necessary steps to get other assistance towards costs and take reasonable steps to increase my income and reduce costs where possible.

What happens if you do not meet your obligations

Not telling us about changes in your circumstances

I understand that if I do not tell Work and Income about changes in my life that might affect my benefit entitlement, or rate, that:

- · my benefit may be reviewed and cancelled and
- · I may have to pay back the total amount of any overpayment that I have received and
- · Work and Income may impose a penalty (up to three times the value of the overpayment) or
- I may be prosecuted and fined and/or imprisoned.

Not meeting obligations that apply to your situation

I understand that I must meet these obligations and that:

- The first and second time I don't meet my obligations, without a good and sufficient reason, my benefit will be reduced by 50% or stopped. I understand that my benefit will increase or restart if I undertake the activity I failed to do.
- The third time I don't meet my obligations, without a good and sufficient reason, my benefit will be reduced by 50% or stopped, for 13 weeks. If my benefit has been reduced or stopped, and I agree to take part in an approved activity for at least six weeks and I'm still entitled to my benefit, it will be increased or restarted.
- When my benefit is reduced or stopped this may affect my entitlement to any incentive payments or supplementary assistance I am receiving.
- If I act in a way that is inconsistent with the purpose for which any incentive payment is paid, the incentive payment may be cancelled.
- · If my benefit is stopped and restarted again, I may have to re-earn my incentive payments.

Not meeting obligations that apply to your situation if you are subject to money-management

I understand that I must meet these obligations and that:

- The first and second time I don't meet my obligations, without a good and sufficient reason, my in-hand allowance will be stopped. I understand that my benefit will increase or restart if I undertake the activity I failed to do.
- The third time I don't meet my obligations, without a good and sufficient reason, my benefit will be reduced by 50% or stopped, for 13 weeks. If my benefit has been reduced or stopped, and I agree to take part in an approved activity for at least six weeks and I'm still entitled to my benefit, it will be increased or restarted.
- When my benefit is reduced or stopped this may affect my entitlement to any incentive payments or supplementary assistance I am receiving.
- If I act in a way that is inconsistent with the purpose for which any incentive payment is paid, the incentive payment may be cancelled
- · If my benefit is stopped and restarted again, I may have to re-earn my incentive payments.

Not meeting your obligation to take any offer of suitable work

I understand that if I fail my work obligation to take any offer of suitable work, including temporary work, or work that is seasonal or subsidised, without a good and sufficient reason, that my benefit will be reduced by 50% or stopped, for 13 weeks. If my benefit has been reduced or stopped, and I agree to take part in an approved activity for at least six weeks and I'm still entitled to my benefit, it will be increased or restarted.

Not meeting your obligations to take and pass drug tests

I understand that if I fail my work obligation to take and pass a drug test when required by a potential employer or training provider, without a good and sufficient reason, that:

- the first time I do this, I will have to agree to stop using drugs so that I can pass a drug test
- the second time I do this, I will have to agree to take and pass a drug test within 25 working days.

I understand that if I don't take and pass a drug test within 25 working days my benefit will be reduced by 50% or stopped, for 13 weeks. If my benefit has been reduced or stopped, and I agree to take part in an approved activity for at least six weeks and I'm still entitled to my benefit, it will be increased or restarted.

I understand that if I fail a pre-employment drug test with a potential employer I will need to pay for the test from my benefit.

I also understand that if I have to take and pass a drug test within 25 working days I will need to pay for the test.

I understand that if I have failed other obligations in the last 12 months the consequences of a first or second failed drug test may be more serious than those described above.

Not telling us if you plan to travel overseas

I understand that if I intend to travel overseas and don't let Work and Income know before I leave New Zealand, my benefit will be stopped the day after I leave New Zealand.

You have the right to review or dispute any decision to reduce or stop your benefit.

Collecting your information

We collect your personal information, so we can provide income support, NZ Super or Veteran's Pension, Student Allowance, or Loans and connect you with employment, education and housing services. We do this under various Acts, which are all listed on our website at workandincome.govt.nz/privacy

- To help us do this, we collect information about your identity, your relevant history, and your eligibility for our services.
- We get this information directly from you, and we sometimes collect information about you from others, including other government agencies.
- You can choose not to give us your personal information, but we might not be able to help you if you don't.

Using your information

We use the information you give us to make decisions about the best way to help you.

- These decisions may be about:
 - whether you're eligible for our services
 - running our operations and ensuring our services are effective
 - the services we'll provide in the future.

Sharing your information

Sometimes, we need to share your information outside our Ministry to reach our goal of helping New Zealanders to be safe, strong, and independent.

- To do this, we may share your information with:
 - prospective employers to help you find work
 - contracted service providers that help us to help you
 - health providers if we need your medical information to assess your eligibility
 - other government agencies when we have an agreement with them
 - some other governments if you may be eligible to get or are getting an overseas pension.
- We also share personal information when the law says we have to.

Respecting you and your information

We make sure we follow the Privacy Act to do what's right when we use your information.

- We treat you and your information with respect, by acting responsibly and being ethical.
- We make sure any technology we use meets strict security standards so it keeps your information safe.

Get in touch if you have a question

You have a right to ask to see your personal information, and to ask for it to be corrected if it's wrong.

- If you have a question or a complaint, please get in touch.
- You can find full details about what we do with personal information in our privacy notice at: workandincome.govt.nz/privacy
