Definition of a relationship for benefit purposes

Whether people are single or a couple affects eligibility for certain income assistance and the rate at which we can pay that assistance.

When we work out your entitlement to income assistance, we'll consider you to be in a relationship if you're married, in a civil union, or in a de facto relationship, and have a degree of companionship.

By degree of companionship, we mean two people:

- are committed to each other emotionally for the foreseeable future, and
- are financially interdependent.

To give you a better idea of what we mean by this, think about whether your relationship includes some of the things below:

- you live together at the same address most of the time
- you share responsibilities, for example bringing up children (if any)
- you socialise and holiday together
- you share money, bank accounts or credit cards
- you share household bills
- you have a sexual relationship
- people think of you as a couple
- you give each other emotional support and companionship.

HOW TO ANSWER Q9:

Tick this statement to confirm you understand the definition of a relationship for benefit purposes.

If you don't understand what we mean by a relationship please leave this blank until you talk with us. In the meantime, go to question 13.

Re-application (within 52 weeks) obligations

MINISTRY OF SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT
TE MANATŪ WHAKAHIATO ORA

Both the applicant and their partner need to read and complete this section.

This part of the application form:

- lists the obligations for the applicant and partner
- explains what will happen if obligations are not met
- includes a signature page for you and your partner (if you have one) to sign
- explains how we protect the information given to us, and what we can do with it.

Obligations

Applies to:

These are what you have to do to receive payments from Work and Income.

If you are getting Jobseeker Support you have full-time work obligations. If you are a partner you also have full-time work obligations if you are:

- 18 years or over and have no dependent children, or
- 20 years or over and have no dependent children under 14 years (including any child you get Orphan's Benefit or Unsupported Child's Benefit for).

People getting other benefits or in other situations may have part-time work obligations, work preparation obligations, or youth activity obligations, depending on their circumstances. These obligations are explained in the following sections. Please read all the obligations in each section because they could apply to you if your circumstances change.

1. Change of circumstances

I must tell Work and Income or my Contracted Service Provider (where I have one assigned to me) immediately if either my partner or I:

- have a change in work situation (such as starting part-time, casual or full-time work, whether paid or unpaid)
- become self-employed/start to run a business
- have changes to my/our income or financial circumstances
- intend to travel overseas
- start/finish part-time or full-time study
- have changes to personal details (such as name, address, contact details or bank account number)
- have changes to my/our living situation (such as marriage or separation, starting or ending a civil union, starting or ending a de facto relationship with someone of the same or opposite sex, change in the number of children supported, change in accommodation costs)
- are imprisoned/held in custody on remand
- are admitted to or discharged from hospital
- have been granted an overseas pension
- have any other change that may affect my/our benefit entitlement or rate.

Applicants and
partners

2. Full-time work obligations

I understand that while I'm getting Jobseeker Support, I have the following full-time work obligations to:

- be available for and take reasonable steps to get a suitable job
- take any offer of suitable full-time, part-time or temporary work, or work that is seasonal or subsidised
- attend and take part in any suitable job interviews Work and Income ask me to
- take and pass any drug test potential employers or training providers require
- attend and take part in interviews with Work and Income as required

Applicants and
partners

Full-time means you'll generally be expected to look for work of at least 30 hours a week.

- work with Work and Income to plan how I'll find a suitable job
- take part in any other activities that Work and Income refer me to, such as attend any job training courses, seminars, work experience or work assessments (including rehabilitation, but not medical treatment) that will improve my work readiness or help me get work
- let Work and Income know how I'm meeting my work obligations as often as Work and Income reasonably requires.

3. Work obligations if you have a health condition, disability or injury that stops you working full time

I understand that while I get this benefit, if I have a health condition, injury or disability that means I can only work part-time, I have the following part-time work obligations to:

- be available for and take reasonable steps to get a suitable part-time job
- take any offer of suitable part-time or temporary work, or work that is seasonal or subsidised
- attend and take part in any suitable job interviews Work and Income ask me to
- take and pass any drug test potential employers or training providers require
- attend and take part in interviews with Work and Income as required
- work with Work and Income to plan how I'll find a suitable job
- take part in any other activities that Work and Income refer me to, such as attend any job training courses, seminars, work experience or work assessments (including rehabilitation, but not medical treatment) that will improve my work readiness or help me get work
- let Work and Income know how I'm meeting my work obligations as often as Work and Income reasonably requires.

I understand that while I get this benefit, if I have a health condition, injury or disability that means I am unable to work or can only work less than 15 hours a week, I will not be asked to meet work obligations until my situation changes and in the meantime I will have the following work preparation obligations to:

- take reasonable steps to prepare and plan for work
- attend and take part in work preparation interviews, where Work and Income ask me to
- attend and take part in work related activities or programmes such as a work assessment, a programme or seminar to increase particular skills or enhance motivation where Work and Income ask me to
- attend and take part in any other activity that Work and Income require me to (including rehabilitation but not medical treatment, voluntary work or activity in the community).

Applicants

Part-time means you'll generally be expected to look for work of at least 15 hours a week.

4. Part-time work obligations

I understand that if I am 20 years or older and my youngest child (including any child I get Orphan's or Unsupported Child's Benefit for) is aged between three and 13 years, I'll have the following part-time work obligations to:

- be available for and take reasonable steps to get a suitable part-time job
- take any offer of suitable part-time or temporary work, or work that is seasonal or subsidised
- attend and take part in any suitable job interviews Work and Income ask me to
- take and pass any drug test potential employers or training providers require
- attend and take part in interviews with Work and Income as required
- work with Work and Income to plan how I'll find a suitable job
- take part in any other activities that Work and Income refer me to, such as attend any job training courses, seminars, work experience or work assessments (including rehabilitation, but not medical treatment) that will improve my work readiness or help me get work
- let Work and Income know how I'm meeting my work obligations as often as Work and Income reasonably requires.

Applicants and partners

Part-time means you'll generally be expected to look for work of at least 20 hours a week.

5. Work preparation obligations

I understand that if I am 20 years or older and my youngest child (including any child I get Orphan's or Unsupported Child's Benefit for) is under three years of age, I'll have the following work preparation obligations to:

- take reasonable steps to prepare and plan for work
- attend and take part in work preparation interviews, where Work and Income ask me to
- attend and take part in work related activities or programmes such as a work assessment, a programme or seminar to increase particular skills or enhance motivation where Work and Income ask me to
- attend and take part in any other activity that Work and Income require me to (including rehabilitation but not medical treatment, voluntary work or activity in the community).

Applicants and partners

6. Work ability assessment

Where I've been asked to I'll have an obligation to attend and participate in a work ability assessment.

Applicants and partners

7. Working with a Contracted Service Provider

Where I've been asked to work with a Contracted Service Provider I'll have an obligation to co-operate with them and to:

- attend and participate in any interview with them
- report to them on how I'm meeting my obligations
- complete assessments with them.

Applicants and partners

8. Obligations for parents and caregivers with dependent children

I understand that while I'm getting this benefit I'll be expected to take reasonable steps to meet social obligations as a parent or a caregiver. These are to ensure my dependent children (including any child I get Orphan's or Unsupported Child's Benefit for) are:

- enrolled with a general practice that is part of a Primary Health Organisation (PHO)
- enrolled in and attending one of the following from the age of three until they start school:
 - an approved early childhood education programme or
 - Te Aho o Te Kura Pounamu – The Correspondence School or
 - another approved parenting and early childhood home education programme
- up to date with core Well Child/Tamariki Ora checks if aged under five
- enrolled in and attending school from the age of five or six (depending on when they start school).

I understand that I may be required to meet with Work and Income to discuss how I'm meeting my obligations as a parent or a caregiver.

Applicants and partners

9. Youth activity obligations

I understand that if I am aged 16-17 years without children and I am a partner of a main beneficiary I will have the following activity obligations:

- be enrolled in and attending, or be available for a full-time course of secondary school or tertiary education or approved training or work-based learning leading to:
 - NCEA Level 2 or
 - an equivalent qualification or
 - a higher qualification
- when asked, participate in and complete an approved budgeting programme
- when asked and in the manner required, report to Work and Income or my Youth Service Provider (where I have one assigned to me) on how I am meeting my activity obligations
- when asked, attend and participate in regular budgeting discussions with Work and Income or my Youth Service Provider (where I have one assigned to me)
- when asked, attend and participate in any interview with Work and Income or my Youth Service Provider (where I have one assigned to me)

I also understand when I turn 18 the above obligations may continue to apply depending on my circumstances.

I understand that if I am aged 16-19 years, I am a partner of a main beneficiary and have one or more dependent children, I will have the following activity obligations:

- when asked, participate in and complete an approved budgeting programme
- when asked, participate in an approved parenting education programme
- enrol my children:
 - with a Primary Health Organisation, where local provider capacity allows
 - under the age of five years, with a WellChild/Tamariki Ora provider and keep up to date with their visits
- ensure my children are attending an Early Childhood Education Programme or other suitable childcare, while I am participating in education, training, work-based learning or part-time work
- when asked and in the manner reasonably required, report to Work and Income or my Youth Service Provider (where I have one assigned to me) on how I am meeting my obligations
- when asked, attend and participate in regular budgeting discussions with Work and Income or my Youth Service Provider (where I have one assigned to me)
- when asked, attend and participate in any interview with Work and Income or my Youth Service Provider (where I have one assigned to me).
- when asked, provide within 20 working days, Work and Income or my Youth Service provider (where I have one assigned to me) with details of my accommodation costs and service costs such as electricity and telephone, lawful debts and liabilities
- co-operate with Work and Income or my Youth Service provider to manage the spending of my benefit, and:
 - attend and be involved in regular budgeting discussions with Work and Income or my Youth Service provider
 - at these discussions or when asked, provide details on:
 - > accommodation costs and service costs such as electricity and telephone
 - > lawful debts and liabilities
 - > how I spend any in-hand allowance and money credited to my payment card or any other device.

I understand that when my youngest dependent child is 12 months of age or over (or is over six months of age and a suitable place becomes available in a Teen Parent Unit) and there are no special circumstances, or I am not the primary caregiver, I will also have the following activity obligations:

- be enrolled in and satisfactorily undertaking, or be available for a full-time course of secondary school or tertiary education or approved training or work-based learning leading to:
 - NCEA Level 2 or
 - an equivalent qualification or
 - a higher qualification.

I also understand when I turn 20 the above obligations may continue to apply depending on my circumstances.

10. Temporary Additional Support

I understand that if I've made an application for Temporary Additional Support, my partner and I must take all necessary steps to get other assistance towards costs and take reasonable steps to increase my income and reduce costs where possible.

Applicants and partners

What happens if you do not meet your obligations

Not telling us about changes in your circumstances

I understand that if I do not tell Work and Income about changes in my life that might affect my benefit entitlement, or rate, that:

- my benefit may be reviewed and cancelled and
- I may have to pay back the total amount of any overpayment that I have received and
- Work and Income may impose a penalty (up to three times the value of the overpayment) or
- I may be prosecuted and fined and/or imprisoned.

The consequences described above will also apply if we use this application form to grant you the Emergency Benefit or Emergency Maintenance Allowance.

Not meeting obligations that apply to your situation

I understand that I must meet these obligations and that:

- The first and second time I don't meet my obligations, without a good and sufficient reason, my benefit will be reduced by 50% or stopped. I understand that my benefit will increase or restart if I undertake the activity I failed to do.
- The third time I don't meet my obligations, without a good and sufficient reason, my benefit will be reduced by 50% or stopped, for 13 weeks. If my benefit has been reduced or stopped, and I agree to take part in an approved activity for at least six weeks and I'm still entitled to my benefit, it will be increased or restarted.
- When my benefit is reduced or stopped this may affect my entitlement to any incentive payments or supplementary assistance I am receiving.
- If I act in a way that is inconsistent with the purpose for which any incentive payment is paid, the incentive payment may be cancelled.
- If my benefit is stopped and restarted again, I may have to re-earn my incentive payments.

The consequences described above will also apply if we use this application form to grant you the Emergency Benefit or Emergency Maintenance Allowance, you have dependent children, and you do not meet one of the obligations for parents and caregivers of dependent children.

Not meeting obligations that apply to your situation if you are subject to money-management

- I understand that I must meet these obligations and that:
- The first and second time I don't meet my obligations, without a good and sufficient reason, my in-hand allowance will be stopped. I understand that my benefit will increase or restart if I undertake the activity I failed to do.
- The third time I don't meet my obligations, without a good and sufficient reason, my benefit will be reduced by 50% or stopped, for 13 weeks. If my benefit has been reduced or stopped, and I agree to take part in an approved activity for at least six weeks and I'm still entitled to my benefit, it will be increased or restarted.
- When my benefit is reduced or stopped this may affect my entitlement to any incentive payments or supplementary assistance I am receiving.
- If I act in a way that is inconsistent with the purpose for which any incentive payment is paid, the incentive payment may be cancelled.
- If my benefit is stopped and restarted again, I may have to re-earn my incentive payments.

Not meeting your obligation to take any offer of suitable work

I understand that if I fail my work obligation to take any offer of suitable work, including temporary work, or work that is seasonal or subsidised, without a good and sufficient reason, that my benefit will be reduced by 50% or stopped, for 13 weeks. If my benefit has been reduced or stopped, and I agree to take part in an approved activity for at least six weeks and I'm still entitled to my benefit, it will be increased or restarted.

Not meeting your obligations to take and pass drug tests

I understand that if I fail my work obligation to take and pass a drug test when required by a potential employer or training provider, without a good and sufficient reason, that:

- the first time I do this, I will have to agree to stop using drugs so that I can pass a drug test
- the second time I do this, I will have to agree to take and pass a drug test within 25 working days.

I understand that if I don't take and pass a drug test within 25 working days my benefit will be reduced by 50% or stopped, for 13 weeks. If my benefit has been reduced or stopped, and I agree to take part in an approved activity for at least six weeks and I'm still entitled to my benefit, it will be increased or restarted.

I understand that if I fail a pre-employment drug test with a potential employer I will need to pay for the test from my benefit.

I also understand that if I have to take and pass a drug test within 25 working days I will need to pay for the test.

I understand that if I have failed other obligations in the last 12 months the consequences of a first or second failed drug test may be more serious than those described above.

Not telling us if you plan to travel overseas

I understand that if I intend to travel overseas and don't let Work and Income know before I leave New Zealand, my benefit will be stopped the day after I leave New Zealand.

The consequence described above will also apply if we use this application form to grant you the Emergency Benefit or Emergency Maintenance Allowance.

You have the right to review or dispute any decision to reduce or stop your benefit.

If we use this application form to grant the Emergency Benefit or Emergency Maintenance Allowance, and you fail one or more of the obligations assigned to you as a condition of granting your benefit, your benefit may be reduced or stopped.

Collecting your information

We collect your personal information, so we can provide income support, NZ Super or Veteran's Pension, Student Allowance, or Loans and connect you with employment, education and housing services. We do this under various Acts, which are all listed on our website at workandincome.govt.nz/privacy

- To help us do this, we collect information about your identity, your relevant history, and your eligibility for our services.
- We get this information directly from you, and we sometimes collect information about you from others, including other government agencies.
- You can choose not to give us your personal information, but we might not be able to help you if you don't.

Using your information

We use the information you give us to make decisions about the best way to help you.

- These decisions may be about:
 - whether you're eligible for our services
 - running our operations and ensuring our services are effective
 - the services we'll provide in the future.

Sharing your information

Sometimes, we need to share your information outside our Ministry to reach our goal of helping New Zealanders to be safe, strong, and independent.

- To do this, we may share your information with:
 - prospective employers to help you find work
 - contracted service providers that help us to help you
 - health providers if we need your medical information to assess your eligibility
 - other government agencies when we have an agreement with them
 - some other governments if you may be eligible to get or are getting an overseas pension.
- We also share personal information when the law says we have to.

Respecting you and your information

We make sure we follow the Privacy Act to do what's right when we use your information.

- We treat you and your information with respect, by acting responsibly and being ethical.
- We make sure any technology we use meets strict security standards so it keeps your information safe.

Get in touch if you have a question

You have a right to ask to see your personal information, and to ask for it to be corrected if it's wrong.
